

As a resident of Indiana that has signed up for the Telephone Privacy program I would urge you not to implement anything that would lessen any protections I currently have.